Session Title:

Human Trafficking: Pimping & Prostitution

Class A – 9:00 am to 12:30 am

By: James C. Hunter, Detective

San Diego Innocence Lost Task Force, SDPD, CA

Presentation Format:

Lecture and Multi-media (4 hours) to include multiple videos, audio recordings and pictures.

California POST certified

Summary of Presentation:

The first two hours is an eye opening presentation on trends and practices of Pimping and Prostitution. It will specifically provide detailed information in regards to Gang involvement. The goal is to give the audience the knowledge to recognize and the confidence to properly react to this crime. The second two hours will take the audience through the inner workings of a pimping case. To include; evidence collection, interview and interrogations, victim management, search warrants (Federal & State), arrests, undercover operations, report writing and AUSA/DA packages.

Training & Experience:

Detective Hunter has been a SDPD Officer for over 16 years and is currently assigned to the Vice Unit and a member of the San Diego County Innocence Lost Task Force. He has conducted numerous surveillances of pimps and prostitutes working various tracks throughout San Diego County, Orange County and Los Angeles County. In February 2009, Detective Hunter developed the first pimping and prostitution training course for San Diego County law enforcement. In March 2010, Detective Hunter was a Subject Matter Expert on the curriculum development for the California State Wide Law Enforcement Training on Human Trafficking by P.O.S.T. In July 2010, Detective Hunter was a Subject Matter Expert on the continued curriculum development for the California State Wide Law Enforcement Training on Human Trafficking of Minors by the Orange County Human Trafficking Task Force & P.O.S.T.
